Cover photos

The two featured cover photos, submitted by Eric McGaw, are two in a series winning a Bronze Award in the 1995 Critique and Awards Program. The photos are part of an exhibition of black and white photos that remain on display in the reception area of the International Crops Research Institute for the Semi-Arid Tropics (ICRISAT) headquarters near Hyderabad, India.

Front: An Indian woman in Maharashtra state preparing a sorghum roti (similar to tortilla). A Hasselblad camera with 50mm wide angle lens was used for this photo.
