Caption for cover photo:

"The Chronicle is a yearly publication of the Office of Development, Alumni, and Corporate Relations in the College of Agriculture, Consumer and Environmental Sciences at the University of Illinois.

This photo, featuring Shelly Fisher and Dr. Harris Lewin, was part of a series of photographs of undergraduate researchers that was included in the 1995 issue of The Chronicle.

The format of the publication isn't strictly documentary, but I did want to create a realistic looking scene. After a series of e-mails and phone calls with Dr. Lewin we agreed to have them looking at an electrophoresis gel on a lightbox. However in the lab when Dr. Lewin demonstrated that they frequently just hold the gels up to the light, I knew I had what I was after.

Equipment used: Nikon F3, 35mm Nikkor lens, Tri-X b/w film, exposure index 250, two Vivitar 283 electronic flashes, one camera bounced off ceiling, the other on a lightstand directed thru a shoot-thru umbrella."
