Cover

Our cover shot, "Blooming Lily," captured by John Wozniak of Louisiana State University, received a bronze award in the 1996 Critique and Awards photography category of color transparencies. The lily was photographed for a 4-color extension publication entitled "Enjoying Ornamental Ponds in Louisiana" and was discovered in a pond made from an old sugar kettle at the LSU Rural Life Museum. John writes, "Us old photographers are still using manual focus, manual exposure cameras. I used a Canon F-1n with a macro lens and Kodachrome 64."
