Editorial Viewpoint

special issue on community education

_Educational Considerations_ is proud to present this collection of articles on the community education movement. This issue provides an overview of the philosophy and history of community education as well as some views regarding its future.

Future issues of _Educational Considerations_ will include additional articles on the subject of community education. The editorial staff would also like to continue the practice of occasionally focusing on one subject for an in-depth review. If you have suggestions for topics or material you would like to submit, we'd be happy to hear from you.
