

The Characters of the TV Show “Community”

	Greendale Community College	(GCC) is an open-admissions college located Greendale County, Colorado. It offers more than 80 fields of study, including some bachelor’s degrees. GCC is especially known for its Air Conditioning Repair School. The school also offers sports and clubs and activities. The mascot is the “Human Beings” and it is only $64/credit hour.
	Jeff	Jeff was a very successful defense attorney specializing in DUI cases, but it was discovered that his college credentials were fraudulent (not Columbia but from Colombia). In order to not be disbarred, he goes back to GCC to earn a legitimate undergraduate degree. He is charismatic.
	Troy	Troy is a former high school football star and prom king. He faked an injury in high school to avoid playing sports in college and ended up at GCC. He is working on a degree in air conditioning and is best friends with Abed. He is also roommates with Pierce during year two.
	Abed	Abed’s passion is pop culture and he is working on a degree in filmmaking and directing at Greendale. Abed has emotion and sympathy for his friends, but speaks with a rather detached and emotionless tone. He is sweet, innocent, and quirky and BFF’s with Troy.
	Britta	Britta is a former high school dropout who eventually earned her GED and enrolled at Greendale. She is majoring in psychology and is working towards becoming a therapist, a career goal her friends regard with extreme skepticism. She is socially active and a feminist.
	Shirley	Shirley is a single mom of two boys who returns to school to earn a degree in business. While at Greendale, she opens a sandwich shop on campus. Shirley is working toward valedictorian alongside of Annie. She is also a devout Christian and talks about JC frequently.
	Annie	Annie attends GCC right out of high school after a prescription drug addiction and breakdown. She is extremely driven and wants to be Greendale’s valedictorian. Annie has been known to say things like, “A passing grade?! Like a C?! Why don’t I just get pregnant at a bus station!”
	Pierce	Pierce is an independently wealthy senior citizen who returns to school for companionship and fun. He tries to embrace youth culture but comes across as racist, sexist, and without tact. Troy started a Twitter account with 600,000 followers called "oldwhitemansays" based on Pierce.
	“Dean”	Craig Pelton is the Dean of Greendale, but everyone calls him “Dean.” He used to be an educator at GCC and has now served in an administrative role for several years. Dean was described as pansexual and has a habit of dressing in elaborate costume, often when visiting the study group.
	Señor Chang or Kevin or Ben Chang	“Chang” starts as the study group’s Spanish teacher, but it is revealed that he does not actually have any teaching qualifications. Therefore, he attends Greendale as a student in order to get a degree. He is goofy and seems to have anger issues. By 3rd year, he is living in air ducts at GCC.
