To order hard copies of the Field Journals, go to shop.symphonyintheflinthills.org.

The Field Journals are made possible in part with funding from the Fred C. and Mary R. Koch Foundation.

This is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences at New Prairie Press. It has been accepted for inclusion in Symphony in the Flint Hills Field Journal by an authorized administrator of New Prairie Press. For more information, please contact cads@k-state.edu.
Today we celebrate with music and grateful hearts the genius of the tallgrass prairie, a particular assemblage of grass, soil, wind, and horizon called the Flint Hills.

Thank you to the hundreds of people who have accomplished together what none could do alone.

Fifth Anniversary
SYMPHONY IN THE FLINT HILLS
Saturday, June 12, 2010
LOCATION TO BE ANNOUNCED

Go to www.Symphony in the Flint Hills.org for updates

Sincere appreciation to all who worked so hard to make this program come together. Without the cooperation of the authors, artists, illustrators, and designers, this journal would not have been possible. We hope that many will come to discover this special place and their knowledge and appreciation of the Flint Hills will continue to grow.

Oh, give me a home where the buffalo roam
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day

How often at night when the heavens are bright
With the light from the glittering stars
Have I stood there amazed and asked as I gazed
If their glory exceeds that of ours

Where the air is so pure, the sky so blue
The breezes so balmy and light
That I would not exchange my home on the range
For all the cities so bright

Oh, I love those wild flowers in this dear land of ours
The curlew, I love to hear its sweet sound
And I love the white rocks and the antelope flocks
That graze on the mountaintops green

Refrain: Home, home on the range
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day
Oh, give me a home where the buffalo roam
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day

How often at night when the heavens are bright
With the light from the glittering stars
Have I stood there amazed and asked as I gazed
If their glory exceeds that of ours

Where the air is so pure, the aspids so free
The breezes so balmy and light
That I would not exchange my home on the range
For all of the cities so bright

Oh, I love those wild flow'rs in this dear land of ours
The curlew, I love to hear it scream
And I love the white rocks and the antelope flocks
That graze on the mountaintops green

Refrain:

Home, home on the range
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day
