

Kansas State University's Undergraduate Research Conference

Sunday, April 14, 2019, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Kansas State University Student Union and Alumni Center, Manhattan, KS 66506

Call for Papers

The Office of Undergraduate Research and Creative Inquiry, in partnership with the Primary Texts Certificate Program, the Developing Scholars Program, and Kansas State University Libraries, invites you to submit a paper or panel proposal to the first annual Undergraduate Research Conference. We are accepting proposals for 15-minute panel presentations, full panel proposals of up to four participants, and poster presentations (from Developing Scholars Program participants only). Proposals are due by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 1, 2019 to ourci@k-state.edu. See below for details and submission guidelines.

General Call: Presentations may cover any topic from any disciplinary foundations. We welcome research, scholarship, and creative activity from any undergraduate student currently enrolled at Kansas State University, at any of its various campuses. Student proposals will be reviewed by a panel of undergraduate students.

Primary Texts Certificate Call: The Kansas State University Primary Texts Certificate Program seeks participants to fill sessions at the K-State Undergraduate Research Conference. Papers should either be centered around the authors analysis of a primary text (or texts) or should be an original piece in which the author creates a primary text. Participants should be either primary texts certificate students or authors of content submitted to Live Ideas: Undergraduate Primary Texts Journal.

Submission Guidelines

All proposals are due by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 1, 2019.
